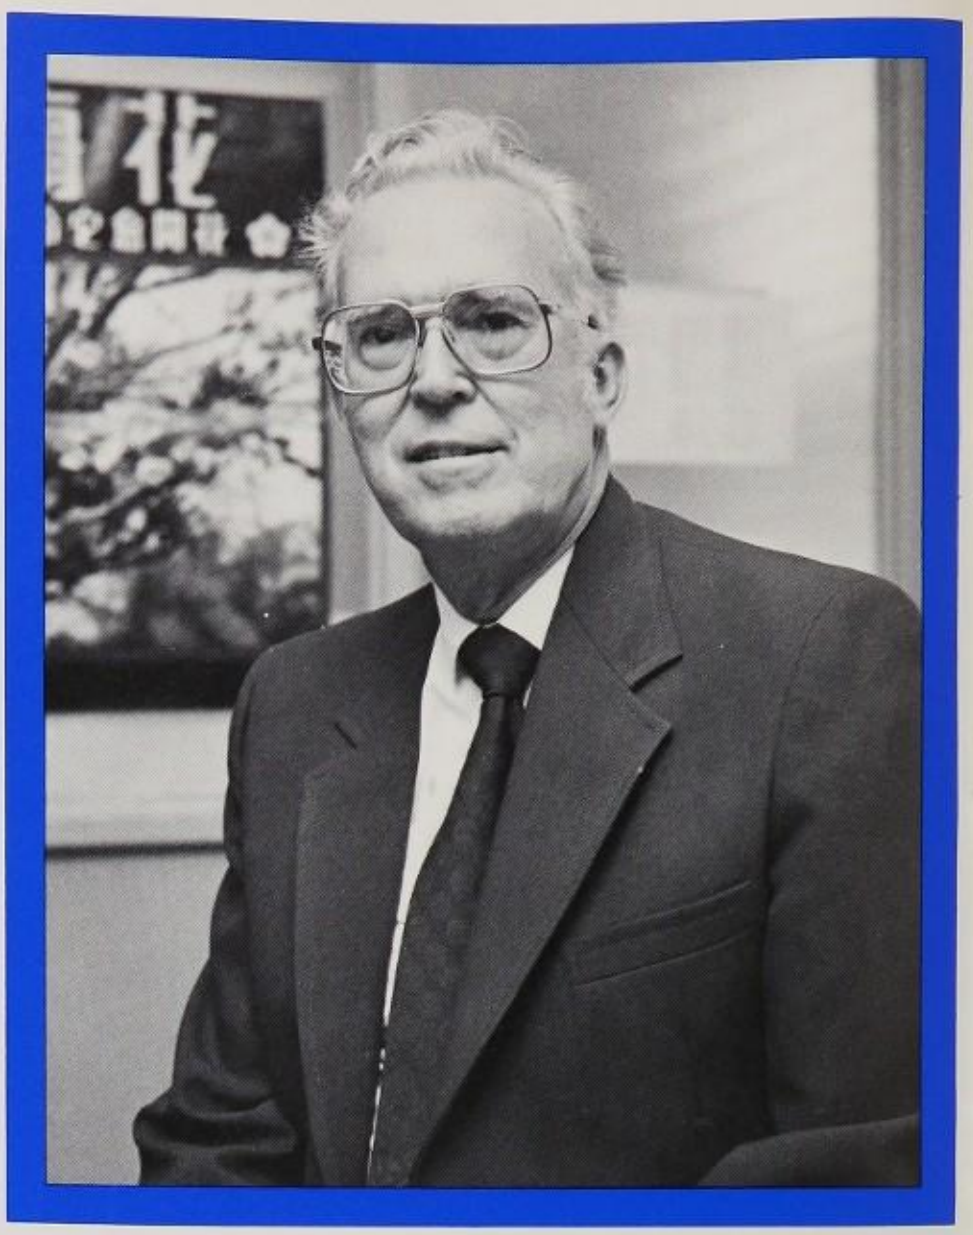
"Thanks for the memories of counting cards packs in Taft Hall, and for the memories of Jeanne, Jan, John, Don, Ed, Julie, and Annette. The most lost days of all were the days on which we did not laugh." June Sloan



"If you need a good story - he knows them all. His example alone reminds us of the importance of a good sense of humor. For, if indeed, one expects to survive in a very hectic office, one must have that special ability to laugh with others and about oneself. Jim Whitehead possesses this unique quality that makes life pleasureable." Sherry Luskin, Yvonne Clapton, Mary Jo Knuth

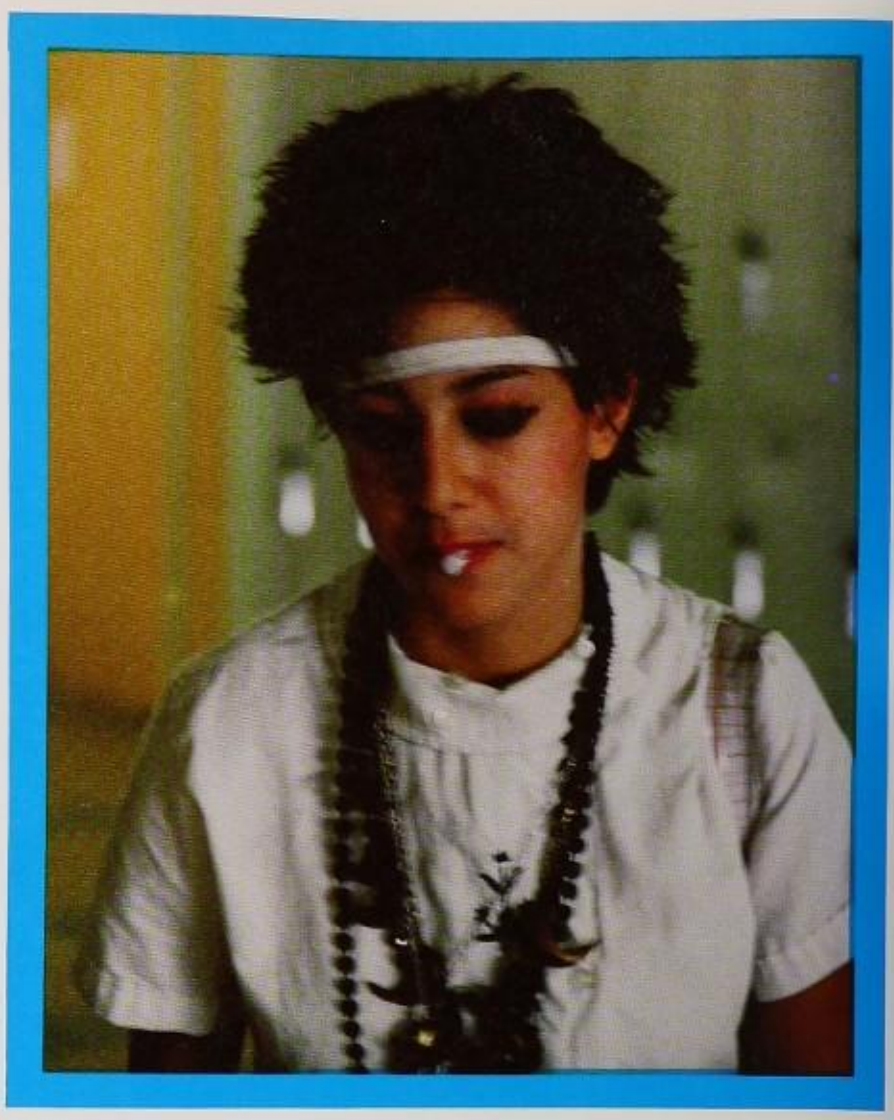
"The counseling staff shall miss Mr. Whitehead when he retires. I always appreciate the fact that he allowed his staff to be themselves. I hope retirement will lead to fulfillment of his new goals." John Furlong

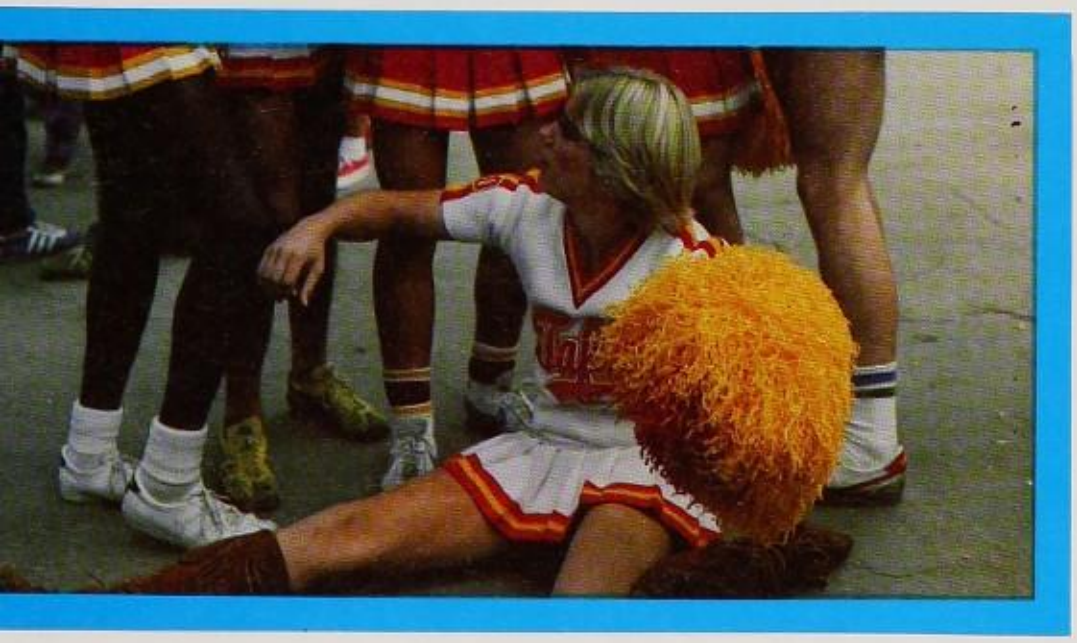
"One thing that always stands out in working with Jim Whitehead as Head Counselor is that he always made it a very enjoyable experience through his effervescent personality. In other words, he was "fun" to work with. We will certainly miss him!" Don Coleman

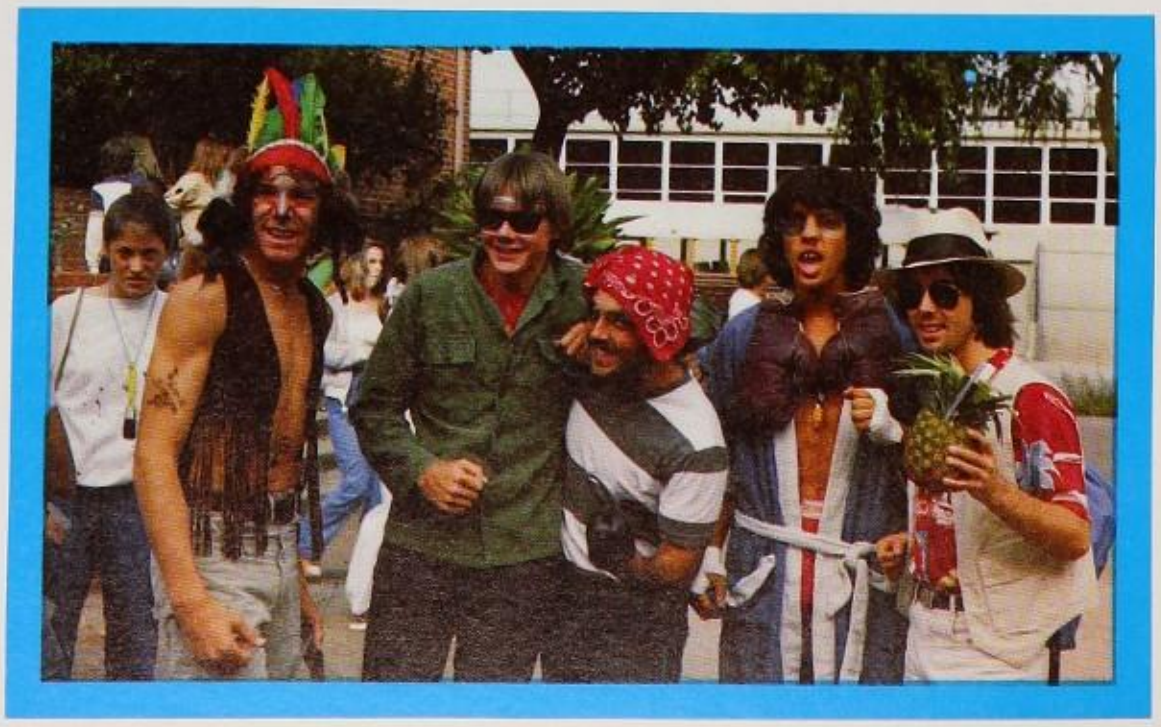
This yearbook is respectfully dedicated to our Head Counselor, Mr. James Whitehead, who is retiring after twenty years of service to Taft High School.

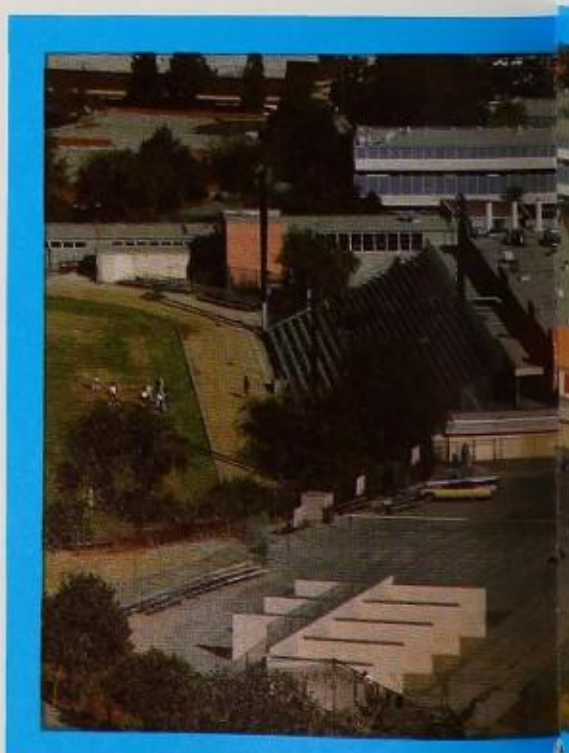
After seven years of teaching and counseling at various Valley high schools, Mr. Whitehead came to Taft even before the doors opened in 1960. Taft's founders fondly remember him for building the program, interviewing the teachers, and organizing a student government to be ready for the opening of Taft that year.

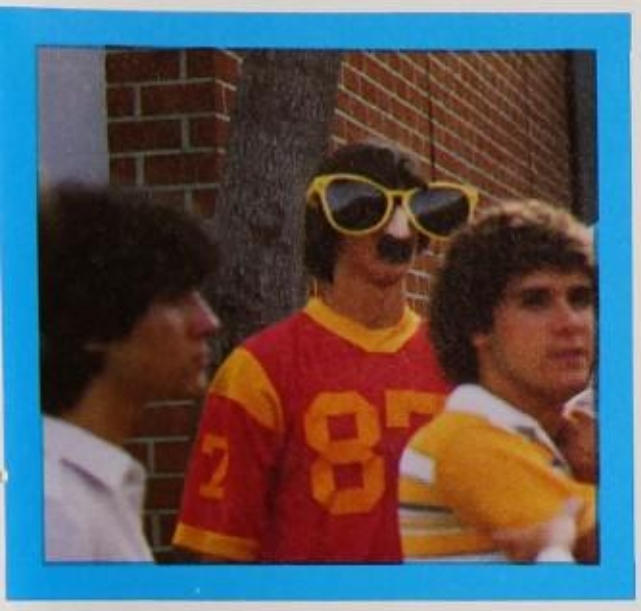
We, the students, will remember Mr. Whitehead for the hard work and the countless hours he devoted to enable this school to achieve its nationwide reputation for academic excellence. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Whitehead for giving us the part of himself that will always remain in Taft High School.











"The world is a looking glass and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face."
William Makepeace Thackery
Vanity Fair

"How quickly does time today turn into yesterday."

Dagobert D. Runes

I look to the sea
reflections in the waves spark my memory
some happy, some sad
I think of childhood friends and the dreams we had.

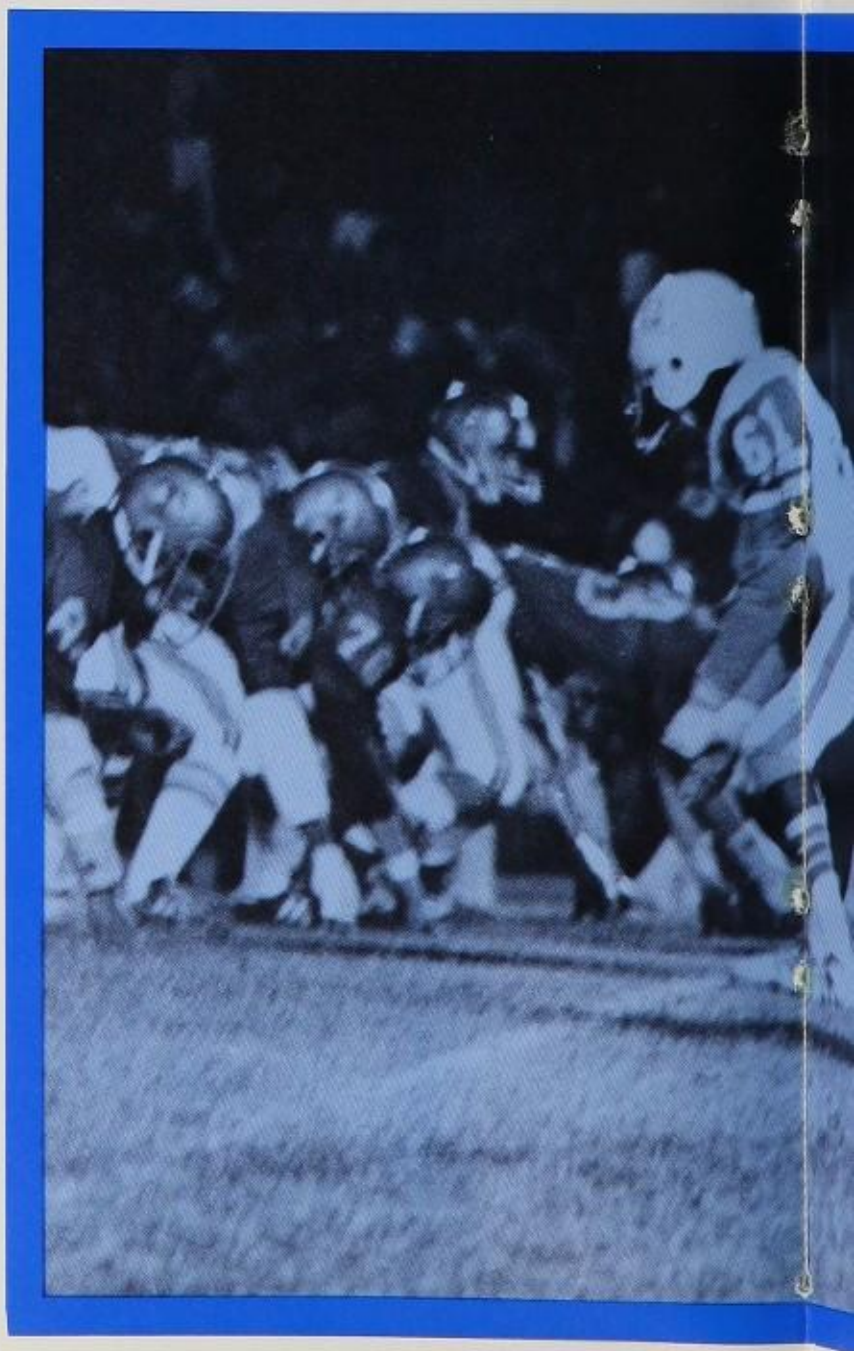
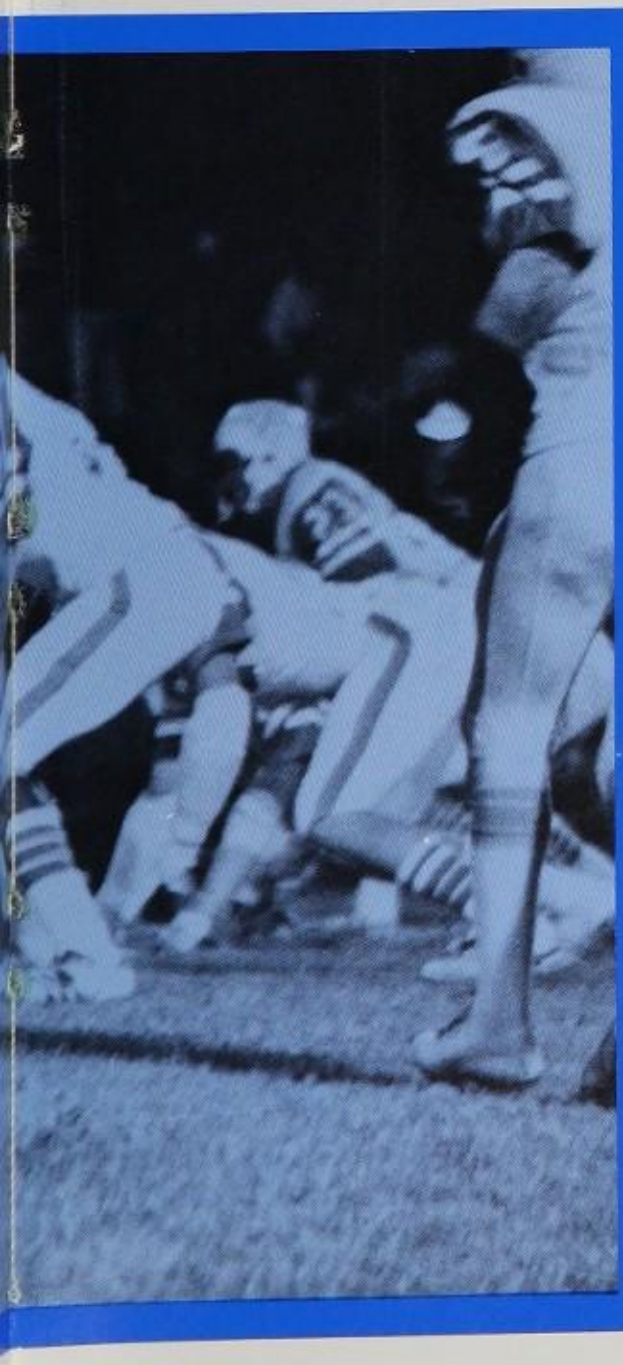
THE WARRING 40$





These pages are a mirror now...
they show us to ourselves.
Reflected here we find the fun,
the friends, the books upon the shelves...
And as we gaze at what we see, we trace the facts and fancy of our high school days

Yet, future years, and future times will give us different eyes.
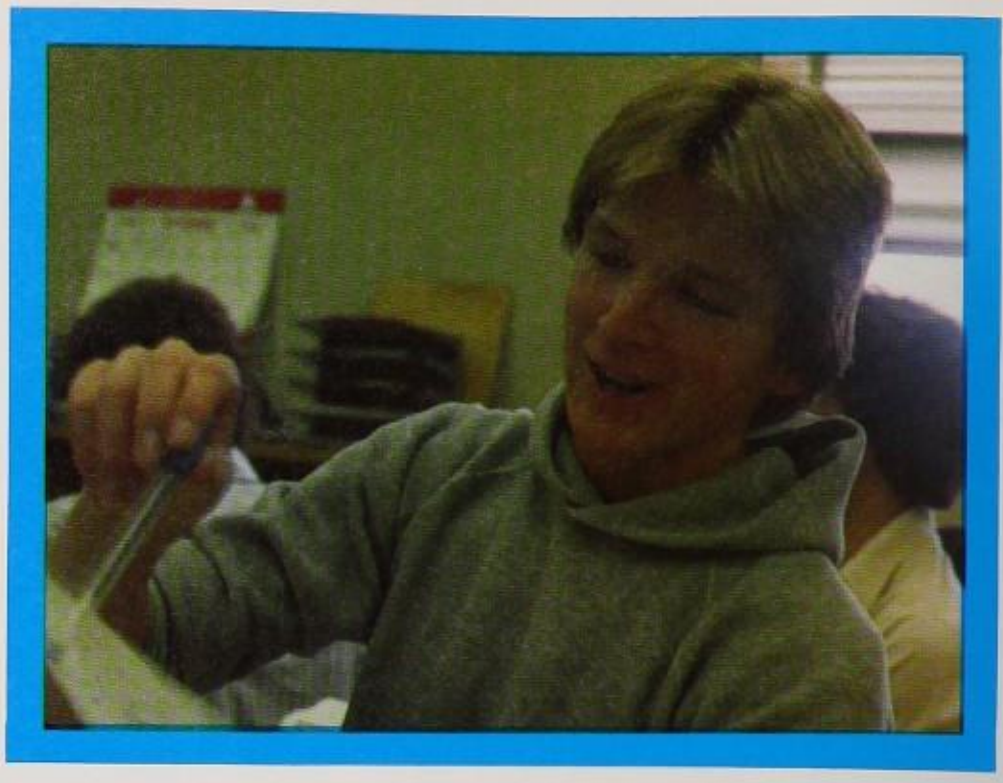
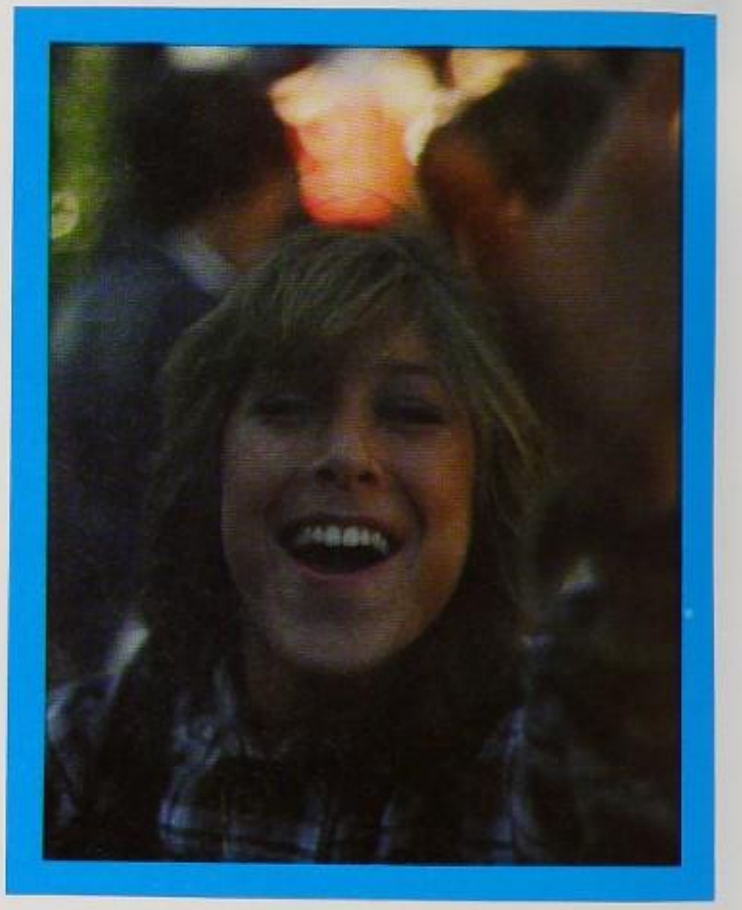
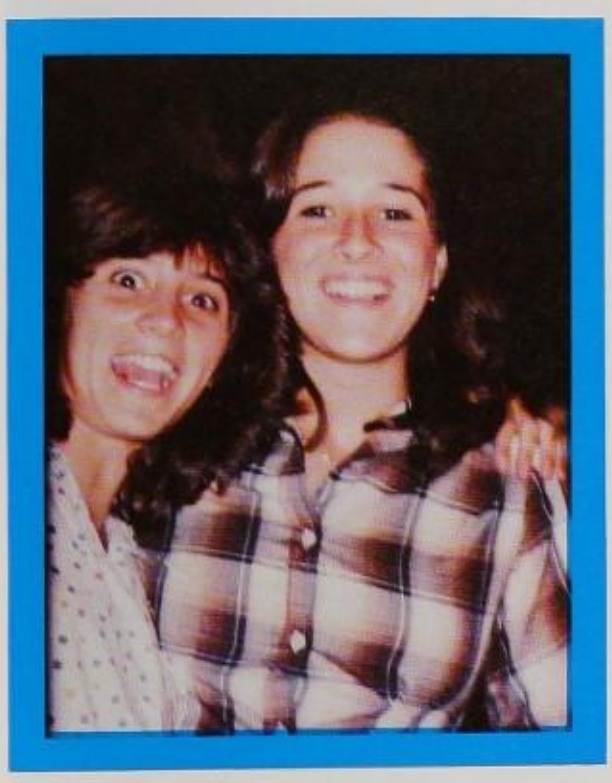
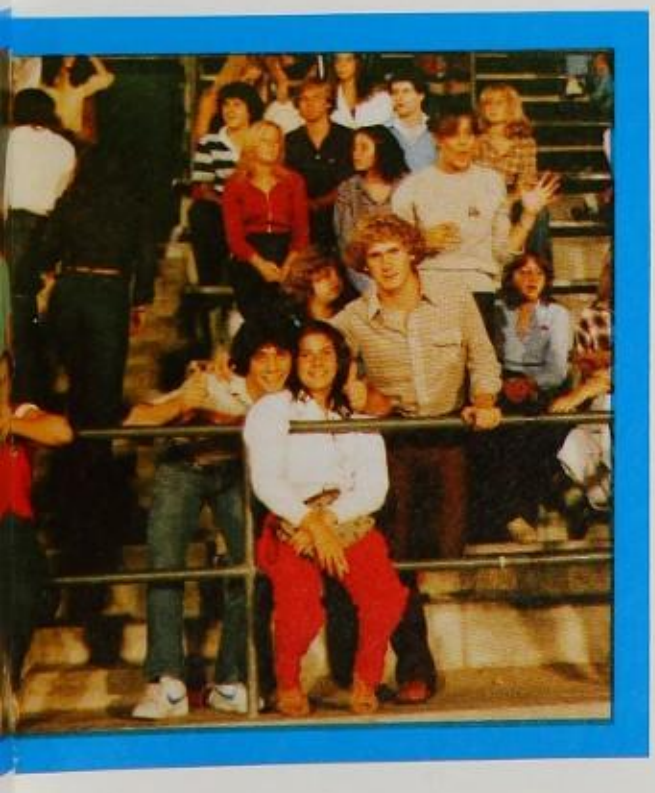
As we reflect on days gone by,
Will we recall what now we know...
What will these same reflections show?









Mirror

Every once in a while we stop and quickly glance at our friend to find out how we look in his eyes. The rest of the world matters little - it is how our friend reflects our deed that counts. We all live lonely lives except for that mirror

Learn by listening.
Understand by reflecting.

"Every age has its own beatitudes; those of youth can never be repeated although they are not forgotten."

"What impressed us long ago may have left our minds, but the impression has not."

Pagobert D. Runes

"O call back yesterday, bid time return."

William Shakespeare

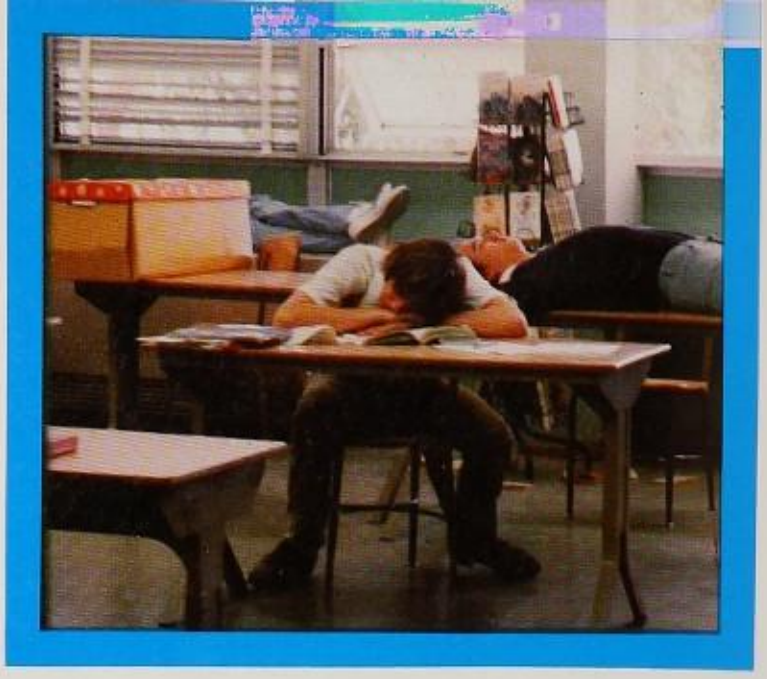
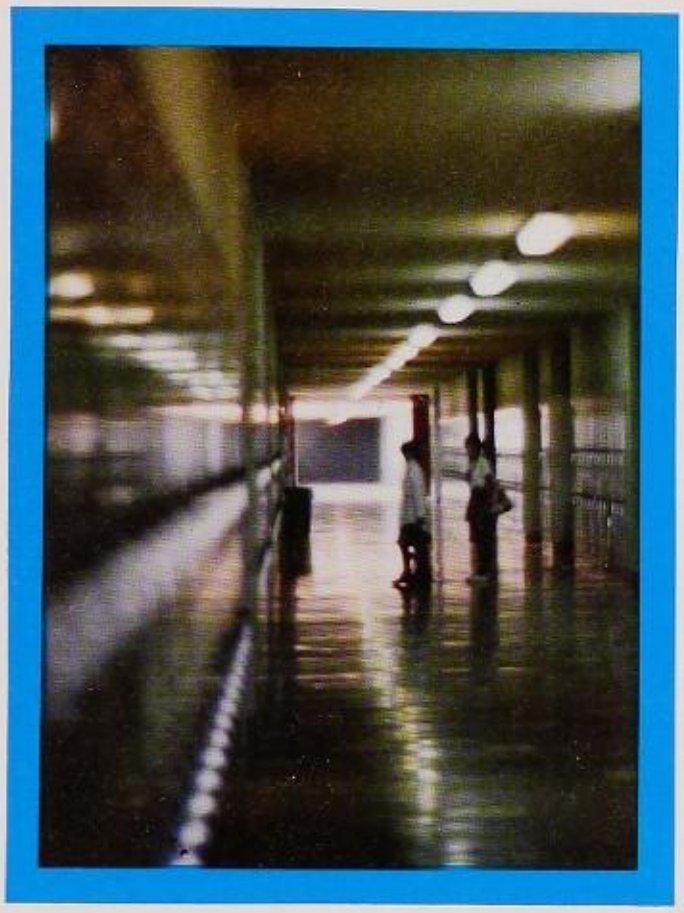
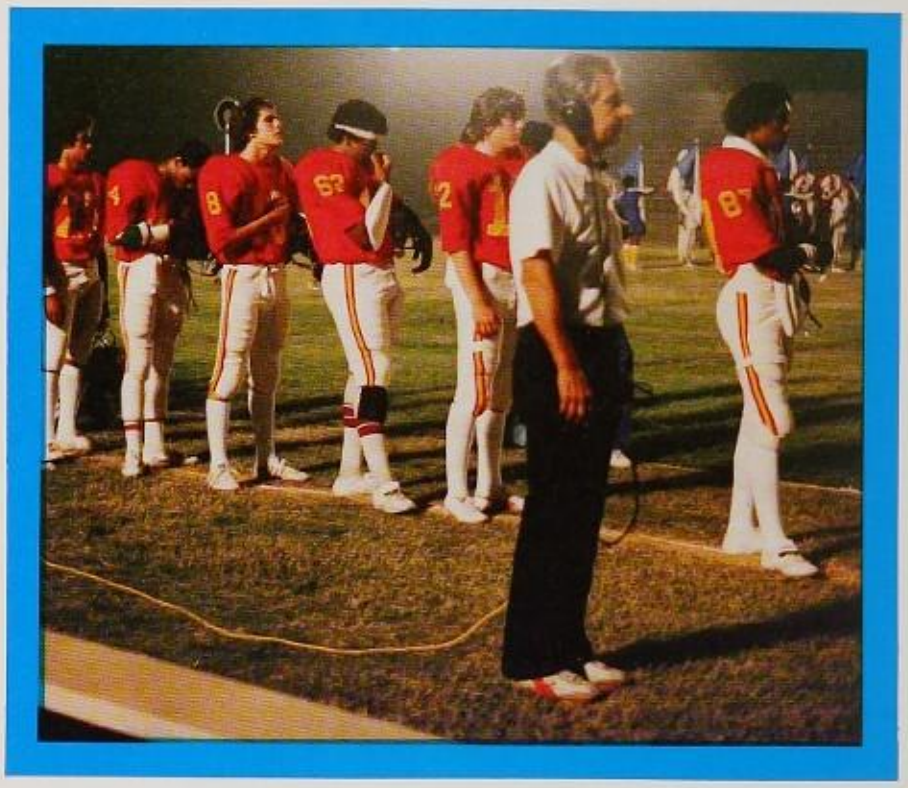
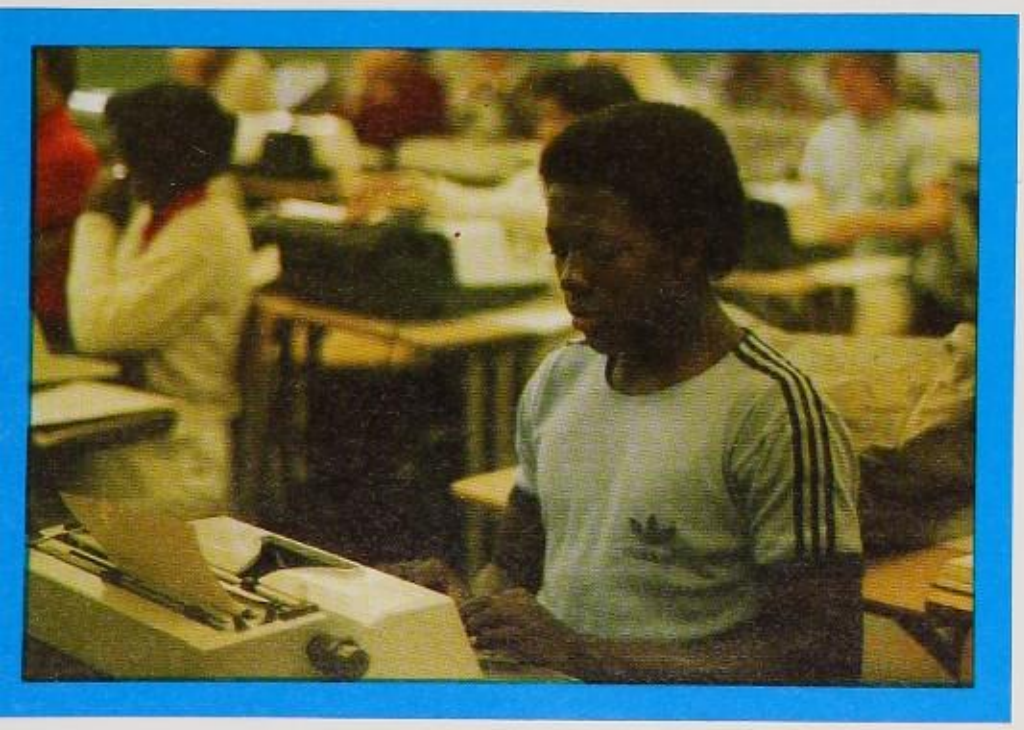
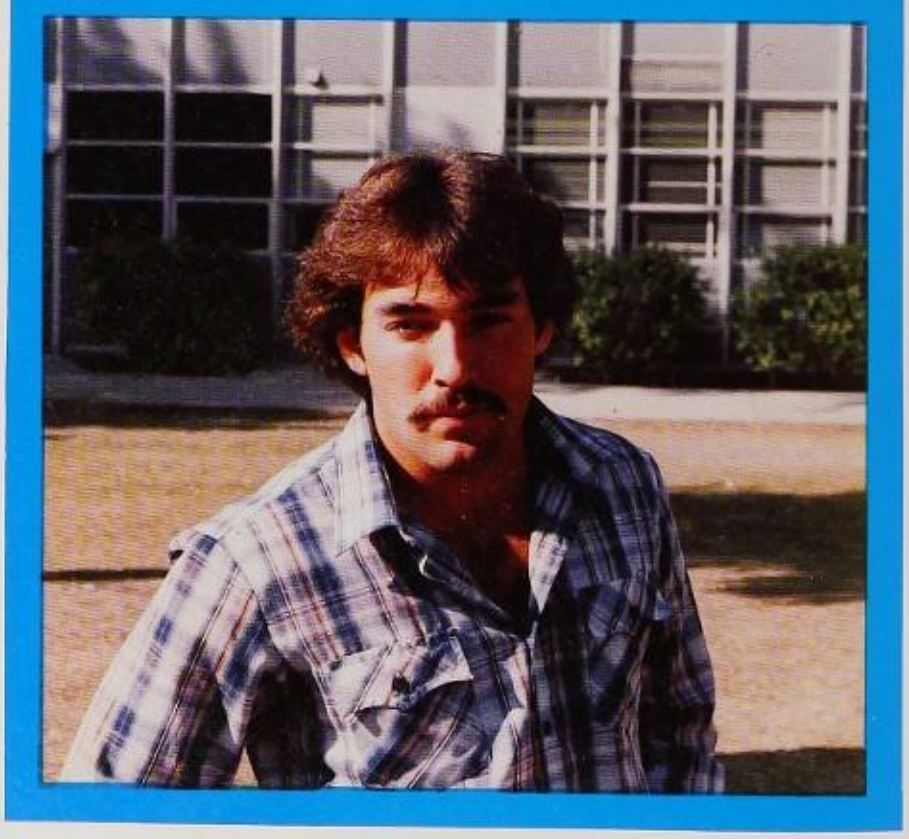
3 minutes, 2 minutes, 1 minute... the tardy bell rings. People run across the halls to class. The noise and the chatter ceases, classes commence. The halls are faithfully patrolled. Another bell. Students stream into halls. The tumult of nutrition begins. The bell sounds again. Lockers slam. Most students shuffle off to class. Talking is heard in one class. Studying and sleeping are heard from another. Undetected laughter comes from an unknown place within the spectrum of daily chores. The awaited bell rings. "Lunch pass, please." sun reflects brightly off the cars. Students drive out one by one. The hour ends soon. "Lunch pass, please." The countdown begins. 45 minutes to go in the last class. The beach would be nice today. 20 minutes. Can't wait until after school. 10 minutes. 9 minutes. Time is moving slowly. The Pens and Pencils are packed away. The bell rings – the students are FREE!











Reflections

The word "reflections" provides us with a variety of meanings, as well as a buffet of ideas. A reflection through the looking glass shows us exactly who we are, what we look like, and the styles of our hair, which are all signs of our times.

Reflections can also be deep or profound thoughts. Thoughts of our past bring reminders of crowded school hallways, the clanking of lockers, rosy red gym shorts, and, of course, the books.

Through this 1980/1981 Atinian we hope to offer images of this year's events. This mirror was constructed to be the reminder of our classrooms, the echoes of our teachers, the memories of our friendships, and the images of our dreams. Most of all, the reflections of our past.

The 1980 football season started off with a bang as the Varsity team captured two non-league victories. From there on, however, the Varsity team ran into hard luck. Beset with injuries, the team did its best in competition with the superior quality of the West Valley League.

The Bee team fared better than the Varsity this year, capturing the league championship. With outstanding play turned in by sophomores, the team was victorious over the toughest teams in the league.

Now, what you hear is not a test
We're just driving for the scoop
And me, the ball, and my friends
Are gonna try and play some hoop

You see, we are Taft High
And we'd like to have some fun
We're gonna blow away all the other teams
Because we are number one

I'm bonafide, I slip and slide
I am the man they call the glide
I like to ram an awesome jam
And make a funky move when I sky for the slam

Funk dunk, slam jam, whatchya gonna do today?
I'm gonna get up, fly guy, and I'm gonna get down
And then I'm gonna shoot the J
Playground, schoolyard, basketball gym
If your rim is still intact
Then it's time to break it in.

Have you ever gone over a friend's house to dunk
And the court just ain't no good?
I mean the floor's all slippery, the rim is bent
And the backboard's made of wood.

Like a Magic drive that isn't good
Like a backboard that's made out of wood
Like a homeboy who likes black-eyed peas
Like a brother with White Man's Disease
Like a 20-foot lay-up that isn't sweet
Like Hannibal without his feet
Like a fast break without the ball
Like Kareem not standin' tall

You got to be hot to be cool
You got to make the other guy play the fool
And if you want to stay cool, you got to stay hot
You got to call "face" when you make the shot
You got to get up to get down
You got to get mean when you're snatchin' a 'bound
You got to be bad to be good
You got to smash the glass and slap the wood

Like the Doctor driving to the hoop
Like an alleyoop jam to the Coop
Like the Magical one doin' it all
Like the Doctor making a house call
Like Dawkins putting down a jam
Like the Iceman gliding in for the slam
Like Chick Hearn callin' the play
Like Normy Nixon shootin' the J
Like flyin' on the break, and makin' the sky
Like bein' the best—we are Taft High!

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL-Front Row: Debbie Rappoport, Coach Arthur Martinez, Debbie Smith. Row 2: Val Copriviza, Julie Levine, Pam Moore, Sheryl Olson, Rosy Ludwig.

The 1980-81 Girls' Basketball Team had a good season with both Varsity and Junior Varsity fighting for the league title. Coach Martinez found his job thoroughly rewarding and enjoyed working with the teams. Win or lose the Girls' Basketball Teams follow this simple philosophy set by their coach: "Success has more to it than just competing and winning; the girls have to enjoy playing the game."

CROSS COUNTRY

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY-Brad Kearns, Steve Kobrine, Robert Benun, Brendan Dozier, David Stewart, Coach Walter Reynolds.

JV CROSS COUNTRY-Mark Karlin, Joseph Grascella, Bob Thye, Shayne Tector, Jeff Gaines, Coach Walter Reynolds.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Taft Cross Country Team has been one of the most consistent winning teams in Taft's 21-year history. This year was no exception. Taft runners proved to be quite exciting as they reached the city finals. Coach Reynolds consistently turns out high quality teams each season.

10TH GRADE CROSS COUNTRY-Teresa Tonai (manager), Steve Yusim, Andy Goldberger, Greg Phelan, Eric Perkins, Bennett Weis, Joseph Huang, Coach Walter Reynolds.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY TENNIS: Denise Parish, Carol Buckwoldt, Laurie Markson, Laura Picasso, Coach Phyllis Pugh.

Taft's Girls' Varsity Tennis team gave great performances during its 1980 fall season. The record through the practice and league matches consisted of one tie and no defeats. This fantastic record is the reason for the Girls' Varsity finishing first in the league. After this, they proceeded to defeat Van Nuys High School in the quarterfinals. This victory led the team to face Palisades High School at the Universal Racquet Center, where the season came to a close at the end of the semifinals. Congratulations team, for a great season!

Wake up!!! Everybody in the pool!!! "But Coach, it's not even 6:00 A.M. yet!" "Stop loafing- we've got to get in 3500 yards by 7:15!!" So goes the life of a Taft High School swimmer- every morning, 5 days a week from 5:45 to 7:15 A.M. Since the girls' team was disbanded due to financial cut-backs in 1980, the girls now swim together with the boys. Taft's Student Body Team is composed of boys and girls of all grade levels. Gone are the Stuart MacDonalds and the Jackie Van Egmonds. New stars have replaced the old ones, including Co-Captains Tom Whittemore and Carol Saich, City Medalist Steve Schwartz and Becky Benson; Girls' Swim Team Champions Kathy and Kelly Danforth and backstroker Marc Kerner. League Medal Winners such as Katie Hanrahan, Brian Strauss, Jeff Gaines, David Moore, Jolene Rosenberg, Simore Van Egmond, Dana Hodges and Janie Kessler loom brightly on the horizon. New 10th grade prospects waiting patiently to make their marks in the school record books are Rob Peterson, Mike Stephenson, Stuart LaBowe, Joel Cohen-sitt, Rachel Rowan and Maria Alexander. Taft's home pool is the Woodland Hills Country Club, located in Woodland Hills on Dumetz Ave. New swimmers are always welcome to try out and become part of Taft High School's living legend and tradition.

"We think Homecoming is absolutely fantastic and it gets everyone involved." -Chris Guinon and Liz Brody

"I think Homecoming gives the school a chance to pull everyone together." -Joseph Shannon

"It was an honor just to be nominated." -Irene Modlinski

Queen and King - Kathy Cacioppo and Andy Wiedlin

Losing the Homecoming football game to Granada Hills High didn't seem to dampen the spirit of Taft's Student Body. The Homecoming floats were elaborately decorated to the theme of "Musical Eras." "The 60's- A Protest Era," "A Night at the Opera," and "Country-Western" were some of the favorite variations on that theme. Play Production's entry was awarded the title of "Best Float" with their parody of the old beach movies, "Gidget Goes to Taft." The dance, which took place the following evening, proved to be equally entertaining. Steve Kolker and Dana Cohen were named 2nd Prince and Princess. Chosen for 1st Prince and Princess were Jeff Bille and Donna Shelton. Andy Wiedlin and Kathy Cacioppo took honors as King and Queen. Everyone involved resumed dancing to Rock, Disco, Punk, and New Wave music for the remainder of this successful evening.

FLAG TEAM

DRILL TEAM

The "rah-rah sis boom-bah" cheer has gone the way of the beaver coat, nickel beer, the Charleston, and dull halftime shows at football games. Instead, in came flag tricks, marching bands, drill teams, yells with social and moral significance, "new wave" dancing, and dazzling halftime displays that are as exciting as the game itself. Taft is no exception. The Flag Team and Drill Team are examples of the modern football spectacle. There's more to a football game today than a football game. Fans at Taft games are used to dazzling exhibitions by our 8-member Flag Team and the perfect precision of the Toreador Drill Team. Rah!

The trumpets wail, the drums beat, the cymbals clash, the trombones vibrate, and the tuba bellows. Behind, in front of, on the bottom, and on top of those instruments and sounds are 64 legs, 64 arms, 64 eyes, 64 ears, 32 heads, and 32 throats. The 64 legs march to the beat, the 64 arms hold odd-shaped instruments, the 64 eyes read music charts, the 64 ears listen to sounds, and 32 throats cheer and yell. The 64 legs have 640 toes (we think), the 64 arms have 640 fingers (we hope), the 32 heads have 64 eyes (glasses excluded), and 64 ears. In perfect stride, marching into the stadium, is the Taft Marching Band. All 64 legs, 64 arms, 32 heads, 64 eyes, 64 ears, and 32 throats. All playing "76 Trombones."

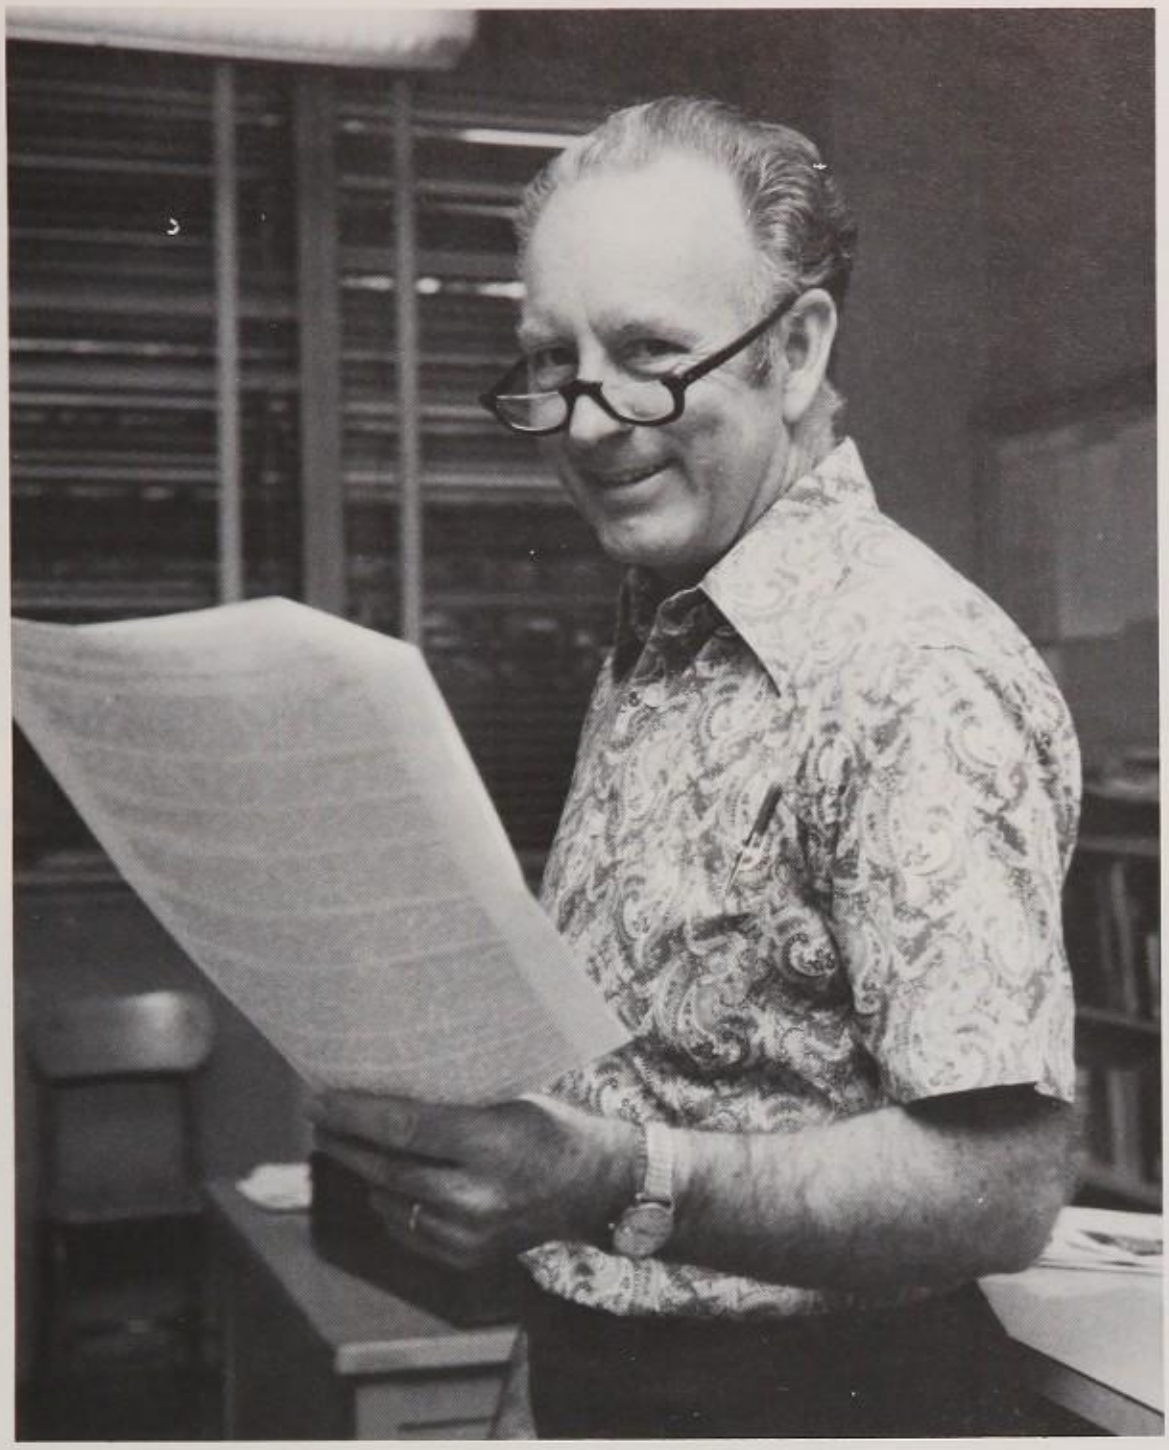
A TRIBUTE



Accomplished, dedicated and sincere are words that describe Elliot Parker, a veteran Taft High Social Studies instructor. Soft spoken yet demanding, Mr. Parker committed himself to helping others.

But a crippling illness discovered only last year interrupted his 32-year remarkable progress; he has fought the devastating emotional side effects of cancer.

Perhaps the greatest lesson Mr. Parker has instilled into his students is the value of thinking and reasoning. His method to train his students is more complex than simply filling in the blanks. He has demanded objectives and perceptive analysis on both historical and topical issues as a teacher and advisor.

His zest for helping others extends beyond the classroom. Throughout his tenure at Taft, he has sponsored clubs and organizations designed to broaden the student's academic clubs and athletic awareness. He has headed Junior State and the California Scholarship Federation. He has also volunteered his time to work on numerous Taft High sporting events.

Further, he has a commitment to his religion and his teaching peers. He regularly attends his community church and supplements his dedication to his faith by serving as a director of his church activities. He has also sponsored and chaired several teacher organizations throughout his career.

Judging from his past accomplishments and his strong determination, Taft's faculty and student body fully hope to see him teaching next year. Our thoughts and best wishes are with him.

-Erik Godchaux

Do not go gentle into that good night.
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
-Dylan Thomas

"Elliot is a great friend whose knowledge and advice has always been appreciated. I miss his wit and his carefully considered comments on all phases of life." - Muncel Chang

"Elliot is a dear friend and I truly respect his ability to be both serious and smiling. I do miss him." - Shirley Harper

"Elliot is a sensitive, caring person who gives not only to his students and his peers but to all humanity."
- Richard Hubbard

"A man of high moral principles, dedicated to students, held in high respect by his fellow workers — a teacher's teacher!"
- William Kidder

"A true Gentleman and Scholar, in an age where they are hard to find."
- William Oxx

"Compassion and understanding are the true measure of man."
- Alan Scholl

"You will be missed-very, very, very much!" - Warren Snyder

"Elliot was most helpful and supportive to me. I found Elliot to be a very dedicated, organized, and sensitive person."
- Rick Sprouse

"Elliot is a friend in every facet - that the word implies. He gives of himself possessing every virtue that a person would do well to emulate."
- Don Thibeault

"Elliot - the consumate professional. A man whose dedication to public education should be mirrored by every young teacher who enters the profession. A teacher whose contributions were endless and whose absence will be sorely missed."

DRAMA FESTIVAL

"Ripley's Believe It or Not" - Hilary Mandel, Joe Shannon, Leslie Smith, Wade Sheeler, Kathy Forrest.

"Serpent" - Pete Rellas, John Crowley, Cari Whittamore, Carson Becker, Alice Plowman, Glynnis Gold.

On the day of November 15, 1980, the Fall Drama Festival took place at nearby Reseda High School. The reputation of this festive competition is one of hopes and directors from Taft's own Play Production class dared to compete and proved they were able to win. Taft entered the seven different categories including Group Humorous, Individual Serious, Individual Pantomime, Group Pantomime, Individual Humorous, Group Serious, and Group Special. Each made it past the first of three judging periods to qualify them for semi-finalists. This grand achievement concluded one of the proudest days in Taft's drama department history.

Believe it or not, the Taft group comedy teams of Leslie Smith, Kathy Forrest, Hilary Mandel, Wade Sheeler, Joseph Shannon and director Bob Striegel performed "Ripley's Believe It Or Not" and took first place. Believe it or not, these dedicated actors and actresses spent countless hours rehearsing and perfecting, yelling and laughing. Believe it or not, all of the work was worth it when this winning group preformed their act before their competitors and heard the roar of laughter and the stampede of applause.

Tara Ison related the funny tale of "Barbie and Ken" in the Individual Humorous race and made it to the semi-finals. Ian Flanders almost perfectly executed "A Boy and His Boomerang" to advance to the finals in the Individual Pantomime bid.

"School Cliques" presented by Marya Matlock, Tracy D'Aniello, Lauren Oxley, Heather Lawrence and Cheryl Kafka achieved a semi-finals rank.

Erin Farrel gained Semi-finalist status for her portrayal of an excerpt from Neil Simon's "Chapter Two" in Individual Serious.

"Join a clique - but don't take the car, you'll kill yourself!" Heather Lawrence

Speechless - (Maybe he didn't know we were speaking to him?). Ian Flanders

THESPIANS

PLAY PRODUCTION

Many of Taft's talented actors and actresses are members of an honorary group called Thespians. This international organization, started in 1929, offers substantial scholarships to its most outstanding members who plan to continue their theatre training in a college or professional school. Students qualify for membership in this group by earning a certain number of points. These points are awarded to the student for performing, writing, directing, producing, or working back stage in a play. Thousands of Thespians (including Faye Dunaway, George Peppard, Carol Lawrence, Marsha Mason, and Cloris Leachman) have gone on to highly successful careers in the performing arts. But being a Thespian has meant something special to each member. For them, and the many to follow, the International Thespian Society represents a collective declaration of love for the theatre.

Fall Play Production includes in its ranks some of Tafts most expressive students. These dedicated performers spend many hours of their own time learning their lines and rehearsing together. Classroom hours, though few when compared to the vast amount of time devoted to extracurricular work, were spent polishing their performances. In addition to each semesters major production, the members of Play Production participate in two one-act play festivals. Honors in the Drama Festival were awarded to our entertaining students.

All around Taft, their colorful posters seem to jump out at the passing students, informing them of the upcoming school activities. Events publicized include: The Homecoming Dance, Powderpuff Football Game, and the Celebrity Basketball Game. Responsible for this creative advertisement is Lisa Motzkin (publicity direction) and the other talented, hardworking members of the Art Production Class.

Row 3: Mike Eidenberger, Jay Farber, Curtis Love, Don Cress, Michael Dumbleton, Tony Berry.

Stage Crew may be in the background during all of the drama productions and assemblies at Taft, but without them the show could not go on. Lighting, sound equipment and building creative sets are all part of their job.

"Stage Crew is a fun and creative class. In Stage Crew you're really behind the scenes of the show and play an important part."-Julie Weintraub

ORCHESTRA

Synchronizing and harmonizing roughly 20 musicians sounds like quite a task, but Mr. Kenneth Kamp and his orchestra produce a unified sound to please all. The highlight of the semester is the Fall concert, which is the result of much hard work rehearsing. Orchestra also performs in other school concerts during the year. These musicians help out with the choir's performances, accompanying the singers with their flattering sounds.

CHOIR

This group of enthusiastic and talented singers practice all year. Much of that time is spent preparing for their presentation of a Broadway Musical. It is a lot of work as Mr. Kursinski will admit, but it is also a lot of fun and very rewarding.

"Singing Christmas carols around school is something that I'll never forget." -

Row 4: Alexis Thompson, Anna Storer, Karrie Madsen, Ingrid Congleton, Toni Mitchell, James Perlman, Otis Monroe, Cheryl Romer, James Allen, Mark Raider.

ENSEMBLE

They are easy to hear since they have beautiful voices. They are easy to find since they perform in colorful red outfits. And they work very hard; they are one of the few groups that meets daily as a class during lunch. They are hard to miss since they sing at all of Taft's concerts, local churches and the Promenade Shopping Mall. They perform mock concerts, madrigals, and sing Christmas carols. Ensemble is the name of this inspirational group.

"I enjoy Ensemble because it gives me the opportunity to sing and perform as a member of a small group."
—Hilary Mandel

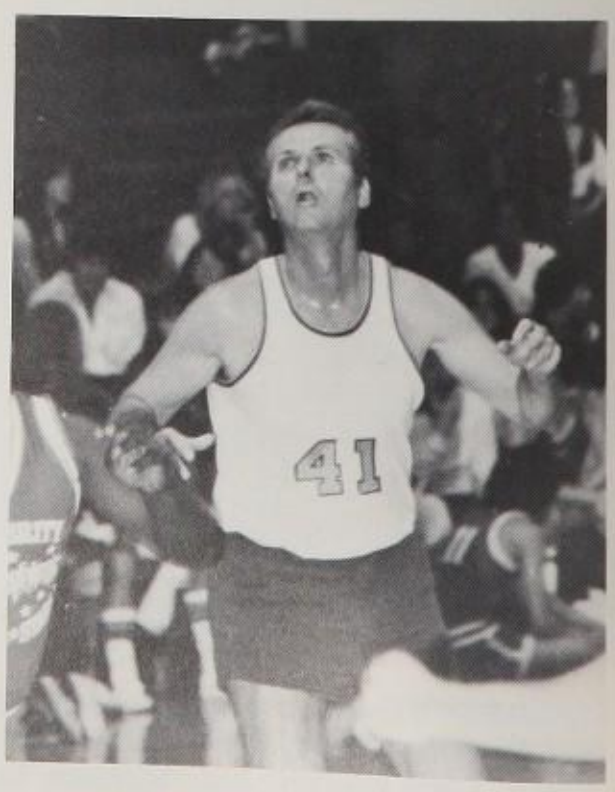
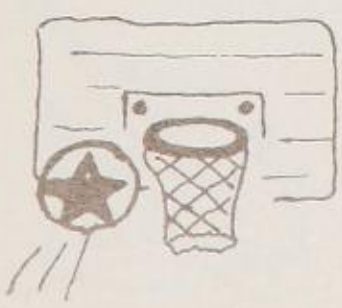
CELEBRITY BASKETBALL GAMES

The second annual celebrity basketball game was a great success, especially since our own Taft superstars (faculty members) won! The combination fund-draiser-spirit booster achieved both goals: plenty of fun and plenty of dollars. In the first quarter, the faculty romped to an 18-10 lead before Steve Garvey placed a celebrity team comeback in the second period by cutting the faculty lead to 20-18. At halftime, the Taft superstars maintained a narrow margin, 46-43. With many faculty members huffing and puffing, the final two quarters were cut to two 10- minute periods. The final score: Faculty 84, Celebrities 82.





It is that special time of year when the football season has just ended but the cheering crowds still want some action. The cheerleaders have just about jumped their socks off, yet they are not ready to turn in their pom-poms. And those football players are just about worn out and waiting for some fun. So, it's Powder Puff football time. The battle between the junior gals and the senior girls was one giant step for women's lib, and one giant step backward for women's athletics. Following a most difficult game, the seniors triumphed, 14-0. Fortunately for the players, as well as the spectators, those skirted wonders put on an awesome exhibit. The enthusiastic cheerleaders, especially selected for this contest, sang, danced and yelled.

"It feels good to be sexy and show off our legs."—Jeff Bille

"Seniors shake the best." —Camilla Brown

"If football players got their choice of cheerleaders, I'd take Ray Shargel." —Valerie Vitto

"The cheerleaders are disgusting and crude, but I love them!" —Dywana Boutte

"Obnoxious and disgusting—and a blast." —Dana Budoff doff

"It's like being at Chippendale's." —Simone Van Egmond mond

"These guys must have a secret desire to dress like girls. Well, why not? Some of them make excellent cheerleaders." —Milissa Lambert

It was a "happening" for sure. A once-a-year "big deal" to promote school spirit and have some fun. There they were Debbie, Laura and Isabel. Also, Jeff and Andy. Coaching were Cliff, Robert and Rich, with Joe doing the play-by-play. There were many others, too. Both teams practiced at lunch and after school for this annual "game." In the end, though, the final score was unimportant. The big winner, after all, was school spirit.

SPEECH AND DEBATE

This group of outspoken students make up the Speech and Debate class, governed by Mrs. JoAnna Ruggiero. They learn about all aspects of public speaking including the use of parliamentary proceedure and logical organization of arguments. The subjects of the debates and speeches are always topical and controversial. Some concern the legalization of marijuana, non-smoking sections, and concert ticket scalping.

SKI CLUB

Under the watchful eye of sponsor William Kroot, the Ski Club is one of the most exciting and popular activities at Taft. The weekly meetings began early this year with the annual ski swap and some fun ski flicks. The most important function of the club started soon after that with the first trip in early December. Beginners, as well as the most advanced skiers, were always welcome to join the fun in Mammoth, Lake Tahoe and other exciting places.

"Ski Club has been a great experience for my friends and I. Skiing is the best opportunity to get away from it all." -Neal Marks

The California Scholarship Federation is Taft's exclusive intellectual honor society. Each member must have 12 points (AP3, BP2, CP1) on the final report card and pay $1.50 dues to belong to CSF. Some of the benefits include College Advisory Day, a tutorial program and a trip to Disneyland. Members who have been in CSF for at least four semester receive gold seals on their diplomas. Taft is proud of the many students who qualify for this statewide organization.

"It's one of the largest clubs in the school, and it's encouraging to know that so many students are involved."
—Jackie Weissman

"I consider membership in CSF as an honor and achievement."
—Lori Birndorf

"I look forward to seeing that gold seal on my diploma."
—Mark Raider

"The meetings are stimulating and entertaining."
Staci Glovsky

CAREERS WITH CHILDREN

Careers With Children is an excellent program for anyone who enjoys working with young children. These students operate a pre-school here, at Taft, for children three to five years old. The children learn simple science concepts such as floating and sinking and other skills. Games are played that develop motor skills and coordination. The Taft teachers also spend part of the year training as teacher's assistants at various schools within the local area.

"I've learned that teaching preschoolers requires a lot of patience and hard work." Lisa Basist

"My experiences in CWC have helped to confirm my desire to work with children." -Debbie Epstein

"Each child is very unique. I've enjoyed getting to know each one of them." -Karen Greene

"I taught in the preschool at Taft for the first few weeks, then I was in field training as a teacher's assistant for the hard of hearing. It's an experience that I will never forget." -Leslie Slavin

The Junior Statesmen of America planned and enacted Taft's first presidential forum on November 3. Members represented the five major Presidential candidates. Besides this trendsetting event, this group participated in state conventions listening to debates, speeches, and other political propaganda. The Taft delegation always has been proud of both their prestige and the number of active members.

"I love going to the conventions, seeing young people come dressed in business suits to debate during the day, and become totally radical at the parties at night."

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish Club is for students interested in the Spanish culture. Most of these students are presently enrolled in Spanish classes at various levels. Some of the activities are a trip to Mexico and outings to Mexican restaurants. This group also enjoys presenting their annual Spanish version of "The Three Bears."

"The Spanish Club, to me, is a club for anyone who wants to learn more about the Spanish culture that's all around us."

SERVICE CLUB

Lords and Ladies once stood for the senior service club. Now, however, it is open to all students who wish to help at school functions and in the community. Dedicated members can be found selling programs at athletic events, working at dances and social programs, and assisting in the attendance office. The favorite activity this year was cleaning up our campus. Anyone crazy enough to want to lend a hand can join this busy group.

SENIOR STEERING COMMITTEE

This year the senior steering Committee met every Tuesday in Mr. Mori's room. The class committee organized events for seniors throughout the year. This was the most successful year for the class of 81 committee as it had about 70 members who helped decide such things as class colors, spirit week, and prom details.

JUNIOR STEERING COMMITTEE

Some say the Junior year is the worst. Sandwiched between the two others, the Juniors strive for recognition. But everyone survives that year thanks to the Junior Steering Committee. This club of innovative leaders steer their class through the "middle year blues" by planning fun raising and fund raising events. The meetings are conducted during lunch and open to any Junior who wishes to contribute ideas, meet new people and have fun.

SOPHOMORE STEERING COMMITTEE

The Sophomore Steering Committee charged into the year with an unmatched bang. They had to. The young group faced the task of leading the sophomores into the productive and spirited three years that lie ahead. The Steering Committee started by informing the 10th graders of the opportunities at Taft, while raising school spirit at the same time. The group also tackled the plaguing problem of reducing the Prom price by planning early fund raisers. But the most critical decision was to pick the class mascot and colors. As the year trailed on, the Committee gained support while its goals were accomplished. This group is still growing and becoming one of the most enthusiastic groups on campus.

News Item-
Who: Tribune Staff
What: Publishes the school news, features, editorials, and sports action
When: Bi-monthly
Where: Taft High
Why: To inform, entertain, and voice student opinion

Editorial-
Problem: Students' opinions are often unheard or lost among other school concerns.
Results or dangers growing out of this situation: Students become disinterested in once popular school activities.
Solutions: Allow any student, teacher or administrator to submit "letters to the Editor." Also, enable everybody to get new ideas from the editorial page.

DANCE PRODUCTION

1981's Dance Production class is filled with an enormous amount of talent. Mrs. Anne Newman, head of Dance Production, refers to the class as an "independent study class for dancers that is not completely independent". This year's Dance Production is said to have more talent together in one place than there has been for a very long time. However, it is not just Mrs. Newman that is impressed with the class. Paula Vazquez, a potential professional who is now enrolled in the class, says, "The class is great! Mrs. Newman is just fantastic!" Another promising dancer, Mia Kelly, says, "the class is good because Mrs. Newman lets us do what we want to do. She allows us to be creative." The energy of the ambitious students enrolled in the class is being geared toward this year's production. The production will include such dances as tap, jazz, 50's, modern, and ballet. The students are hoping it will be the best production ever.

54 Cadets were enrolled in the Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps this year. Besides the classes on Navy terms and ways of life, and present day problems, they participate in a special drill team preparing for the big drill meet. Many of the Junior Officers look forward to the Mini Boot Camp during Spring vacation, presenting the colors at football games, and going to conventions. So when you see these noble souls around campus, SALUTE!

VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS - Dr. Allan School has organized a committee here at Taft and has written a grant proposal for a class that would benefit students with talent in the visual and performing arts. The proposal has been approved, and Area 10 has given us a grant of $4,000. This class will be used as a pilot class for the entire LAUSD. This program will include researching topics involving the general theme of "LA's Bicentennial," then transforming this information into scripts for t.v. production. Some samples themes are "The impact of movies and t.v. on LA", "LA's Intercultural Heritage," and "How international foods relate to LA". Mrs. Feldman, Mr. Chang, Mrs Fein and Mrs. Navara have assisted Dr. Scholl in getting this program underway.

Hard working and certainly deserving of more recognition, this devoted group of parents, teachers and administrators work behind the scenes promoting involvement in school activities. In addition to operating the snack stand at the football games and awarding trophies for athletics achievement, the Booster Club this past year established a memorial fund for Dave Camblin. Striving toward their objective of a spirited student body, the Booster club has proven to serve a needed function at Taft.

PTSA - The Parent Teacher Student Association, PTSA, is a group of volunteer workers who work together for service and enrichment to Taft High School. Pyllis Hurwitz is PTSA President. This year has been extremely productive they strove for a student oriented PTSA program this year. These volunteer workers have served Taft by helping at spring and fall registration, providing and hosting a "Back to School" luncheon for teachers and personnel, selling tickets and chaperoning Grad Nite, and many other services.

What is SCAC ? Good question. SCAC is the School Community Advisory Council. They have been at Taft as well as other schools for about ten years. And what do they do? They act as a community sounding board for the principal, concerned with school curriculum and administration. Are you a parent, student, administrator, faculty member or community member? If you answered yes to any of these, you can become a part of this group.

GIRLS' WEEK

Thanks to the tremendous efforts of Mrs. Cornell, the cooperation of Taft's dedicated teachers, and especially thirty-six notable girls, Girls' Week was a grand success. These three forces combined to enable outstanding girls to participate in city-wide activities. Mrs. Cornell asked teachers to submit the names of girls who excelled in either academics, sports, or leadership.

The chosen girls participated in career-related activities, including hospital and government positions. The twelve girls who received the most nominations were recognized at a special luncheon. After essays and interviews and hours of deliberation, Jackie Weissman was chosen as the Most Distinguished girl at Taft. As a result of this distinction, Jackie acted as Deputy Superintendent of L.A.U.S.D. for a day.

"I was surprised, yet very honored to be chosen."
-Lauren Sloan

"I appreciate Girls' Week because it is necessary to acknowledge and encourage young women to be their best in every area of their lives."
-Donna Shelton

ATINIAN STAFF

And now introducing (drumroll, please) . . . the 1981 Atinian staff!

After all those rainy (or sunny, much worse Sundays spent up in E226 (with no heat, running water, food, or even radio, mind you) we've somehow put together this book for you. Our main goal the past two semesters has been to create something that expresses the feeling that is right now as well as something to reflect on in the years to come (as we reminisce in our rocking chairs). We sincerely hope we've accomplished this.

Good Luck to All.

. . . and in the end
the love you take is equal to the love
you make.

I'm trying so hard to say what I feel,
to be what I want to be,
to do what I want to do;
to experience - to touch the stars, and find out all that I can,
but damn, it's so hard.
My body is young and still has yet to grow,
although it is hungry for love and living and show.
My mind is old and full of words that have yet to speak, and I am torn, for I can't hold back what my mind must seek,
what my mind wants to be.
